Dear Parishioners,

National Vocation Awareness Week

This Sunday begins, National Vocation Awareness Week. It is a celebration that is dedicated to promoting vocations to priesthood, religious life, the permanent diaconate and married life through prayer and education. What does this mean for us in Holy Family and in the Diocese of Brooklyn? This is an opportunity for all parishes to raise awareness that we all have a unique purpose, given to us by God and we must all seek after that vocation with great zeal. In the spirit of National Vocation Awareness Week, I would like to list and highlight all the different vocation programs that the Diocese of Brooklyn is offering for those who are open to the idea of the priesthood:

FRATERNITAS is a group for middle school students – sixth, seventh and eighth graders – that is dedicated to instilling Christian values in young men with the goal of fostering a true Catholic gentleman. Our monthly encounters allow us to accomplish this mission through prayer, catechesis, sports and sacraments. These gatherings take place at Cathedral Prep and Seminary High School in Elmhurst.

The Jeremiah Project is for our high school level discernment group. The Jeremiah Project is an overnight experience for high school boys which is designed for young men who have demonstrated exemplary Christian values and who are willing to learn more about the possible vocations God may be calling them to – whether that may be married life, single life, the diaconate, or priesthood. These overnight events are held at the Cathedral Seminary House of Formation in Douglaston.

Fraternal Gatherings

Project Andrews are opportunities for young men to learn more about the priesthood by joining one of the diocesan bishops and other priests and seminarians from the Brooklyn Diocese for an afternoon of prayer, dinner, and conversation.

The Vocation Office is also offering “Evenings of Fraternity” for men who may be considering a vocation to priesthood. The evening consists of a 5 p.m. Holy Hour at the Carmelite Monastery followed by a meal and reflection on priesthood. These evenings take place on Mondays at the Saint John Paul II House of Discernment in Brooklyn.

Have a great week!

Fr. Sean

Election Prayer

Almighty God, Lord of Life and King of all Nations, we beg you to look kindly upon our country and help us to wisely choose our new leaders. Inform our consciences and enlighten our judgement, that we may elect those who will mercifully uphold justice and strive to protect the least among us. Help us to discern which candidates will uphold both the letter and spirit of the law. May our nation once again respect religious freedom, authentic marriage, the importance of family and the value of every human life– from conception to natural death. Heal the divisions which wound our unity and help us to overlook political tensions that keep us from becoming a united force for good. May our great land, built on both personal responsibility and charity towards the less fortunate, always balance prosperity with care for the elderly, the poor, the sick and the abandoned. May we elect honest and trustworthy candidates who will always uphold the common good and protect our God-given rights. In concert with the great founders of our nation, may we confidently proclaim, “ In God we trust”. Amen
